

GLR-OH-291
SOUTHEAST GROUP HEADQUARTERS
Adopted and Approved 29 MARCH 2026

The Southeast Group Headquarters Emblem is of the shield and scroll design. Azure trimmed Or (yellow), Gules (red), six mullets of five points Argent (gray), three in chief, two in fess, and one in base, surrounding a hurt fimbriated Argent (white) bearing a triangle throughout of the like charged with a three-bladed propeller Gules (red). Attached below the shield, a scroll edged Or (yellow) and inscribed "SOUTHEAST GROUP" in letters Azure (blue).

The red shield represents the valor and dedication of Southeast Group members. The six gray stars, which are representative of each of the units within the Group as of March 2026, symbolize unity and guidance. The scarlet and gray color scheme within the shield is also a nod to The Ohio State University, which is roughly geographically centered between all the current squadrons of the Group. The central CAP roundel represents the heritage of Civil Air Patrol and Central Ohio's immense heritage within Ohio Wing and Civil Air Patrol at large.

Designed by: Maj Allen Verplatse, Capt Jared Del Orfano, SMSgt Fischer, and SSgt Hughes, March 2026.
